The College of Dentistry Represents in Chicago at ADEA and the American Academy of Cariology

On March 15-19, many collegiate faculty, staff, and students attended the annual ADEA conference and the Third Annual Conference of the American Academy of Cariology in Chicago. Dean Johnsen and Dr. Leo Marchini passed along several pictures from the two conferences. They are available on the College of Dentistry website.

Dr. Lily Garcia and Dr. Lisa Lang (Ohio State) Complete Important Work in Prosthodontics

After several years of work, Dr. Lily Garcia and Dr. Lisa Lang have completed editing and compiling the new Dental Clinics of New America volume on Prosthodontics. Drawing from experts across North America, the volume provides important information regarding central areas of interest in the field of prosthodontics. The topics represented include a wide range of relevant topics: fixed, removable, and implant prosthodontics, the periodontal-prosthodontics connection, ceramic and adhesive technologies, sleep apnea, various aspects of the digital workflow, and the Pro-CAT evidence-based dentistry. The full text is available here.

Dental Student Admissions Attends the 2019 ADEA GoDental Recruitment Fair

Sarah Kelly and Rachael Kowbel, Director of Dental Student Admissions, attended the 2019 ADEA GoDental Recruitment Fair. With the help of Briar Voy, a third-year dental student and an IASDA attendee, the three Iowa representatives marketed Iowa to 700+ pre-dental students. The event was a huge success! Special thanks to Dean Timmons for providing resources for all to attend and to Pat Conrad for creating infographics and materials to display.
