The College of Dentistry Welcomes Dr. Sindhura Allareddy

Dr. Sindhura Allareddy is a new faculty member in the Department of Oral Pathology, Radiology and Medicine. She obtained an MS degree in stomatology and completed her residency training in oral and maxillofacial radiology at The University of Iowa. She worked part time at Iowa before she left for a faculty position at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Allareddy recently moved back to Iowa City from Ann Arbor, Michigan to join her family. She is married to Dr. Trishul Allareddy, who is also a faculty member in OPRM, and they have a three-month-old infant, Arjun, and a nine-year-old toy poodle, Max.

Dr. Allareddy enjoys cooking, painting and travelling.

The College of Dentistry Welcomes Dr. Marcia Sampaio Campos

Dr. Marcia Sampaio Campos graduated in dentistry from the University of Vale do Paraiba (Brazil) in 2001 and obtained her M.S in biological sciences from the University of Vale do Paraiba in 2004. In 2008 she finished her PhD in oral pathology and her certification in the same area, both from the University of Sao Paulo (Brazil). In this same year, she moved to Michigan (University of Michigan) where she did a post-doctoral training in Dr. Jacques Nor’s laboratory working with tumor angiogenesis and cancer stem cells. She returned to Brazil and successfully got a funded grant and some scholarships supervising undergraduate and graduate students. She taught oral pathology and medicine at the University of Taubate and at the University of Vale do Paraiba while keeping her private practice as a general dentist and oral pathologist for eight years.

In 2016, she began working as an adjunct clinical assistant professor at the University of Michigan.

Dr. Campos was born and raised in Brazil and is married to Dr. Bruno Cavalcanti, also a new faculty in the College of Dentistry Department of Endodontics. They are proud parents of two beautiful kids: a 5-year-old boy named Rafael and a 3-year-old girl named Lisa.
