ORAL SOFT TISSUE BIOPSY: COMMON LESIONS, INDICATIONS, AND TREATMENT WITH HANDS-ON WORKSHOP

October 6, 2017
Presented by the Departments of Oral Pathology, Radiology and Medicine; Family Dentistry; and Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery
Afternoon Hands-On Session Will Be Limited to 30 Participants

THE PROGRAM and OBJECTIVES
Participants in this course will identify and review the most common oral pathology lesions and when a biopsy is needed along with learning and performing soft tissue biopsy techniques and cytology. The requirements of how to submit a biopsy, what information is needed when submitting the biopsy and what to expect will be discussed. Participants will learn how to effectively write an oral pathology note for patient records and who is the appropriate referral track after a biopsy diagnosis. During the hands-on portion of the course, participants will perform simple soft tissue biopsies that could be done in private practice offices.

At the completion of the program, participants should be able to:
• Identify the most common oral pathology lesions and determine if a biopsy is indicated;
• Feel comfortable documenting oral pathology lesions and submitting a biopsy specimen for examination as well as knowing what information to provide to the oral pathologist;
• Identify the appropriate referral track after a biopsy diagnosis is returned and where further treatment is needed; and
• Feel comfortable performing soft tissue biopsy techniques including punch biopsy and scalpel biopsy along with dressing the lesion after the biopsy is performed.

PROGRAM FACULTY
